

10. Dan Lee shares his views and experience on Jun Fan Jeet Kune Do.
 11. Host and organizer James Ter Beek and BLEF English representative Andrew Staton.
 12. Bob Brnner helping students understand the finer points of the Bu Jee techniques.
 13. Bruce Lee's student, Pate Jacobs, explaining the ballistic punching theory.
 14. Two second generation JKD teachers in the Nucleus: Chris Kent and Cass Magda.
 15. Taiji demonstrating the Wing Chun Chi Sao exercise with his son Andrew.

and for the first time showed the original idea that Bruce had for the film. These scenes are much richer than the disastrous 1978 version of "My Last Combat", and after the film Linda and Shannon answered questions about Bruce Lee's films, his professional career, his work, his training and the JKD manuscripts. At the end of the first day the participants met to enjoy the magnificent banquet, and the evening's festivi-

BRUCE LEE EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION SEMINAR

ties were opened once again by Linda. The other members of the nucleus group introduced themselves from the platform and told stories and anecdotes about events with Bruce Lee. In the end it is important to acknowledge the work and patience of the two organizers of this event: James de Beek and George Sirag, who are both JF JKD fans, who had visited all the BLEF seminars in the United States and who had wanted to bring this event to Europe so that martial artists and Bruce Lee fans in Europe did not have to travel to the USA in order to train with the nucleus group. It had taken more than one year for James and George to organize everything and they should be credited for all their effort and care, which made this seminar, possible. ✂